Guidelines

All students completing grades 11 and 12 are eligible for the ISA diploma, provided they meet the requirements defined in the student agenda and the "IB Diploma Course Descriptions" guide.

Students taking the full IB Diploma Programme must take three Higher Level (HL) subjects and three Standard Level (SL) subjects. To begin HL classes, students are typically expected to have completed an MYP course (or its equivalent) and earned an achievement grade of 5 or higher.

The full IB Diploma is based on the following groups:

Group Three – Individuals and societies Group Six – The arts (or additional group 1-4)

ISA offers a wide range of courses for IB Diploma Programme and IB Course Programme students. However, it is important to recognize that not every combination of courses can be available for all students. If two classes meet at the same time, a student will have to choose a course that is his or her higher priority. This is the purpose of our grouping or "silo" system. Fortunately, we are able to offer a schedule of courses that allows students to take our most popular, and most practical, combination of courses.

Instructions

Students choose one subject from each of the "silos" listed on page 2. If they are pursuing the full IB Diploma Programme, they must be careful to choose three HL and three SL courses, and make sure they have selected a course from each of the above listed groups. Students should have their parents sign for each of the subjects chosen, please see page 2. Please also list alternative courses, just in case we can't accommodate your first choice.
